

Bedside, Pitchside and Roadside

What to do when everyone looks at YOU

Refresher in emergency care for GPs (On and off duty)

Friday 11th March 2011
Future Inn, Tavistock Rd, Plymouth

£70

- 8.45 Registration
- 9.10 Welcome
- 9.15 ECG Refresher. Heart and Brain attack update
- 10.15 2010 Resuscitation Guidelines with demonstration
- 11.00 Tea and Coffee
- 11.30 Airway management, protecting the C spine and removal of motorcycle helmet- practical session.
- 12.30 Lunch (provided)
- 1.30 First on scene at a RTC-Demonstration (car park)
(Please bring coats/umbrellas)
- 2.00 RTC Scene management including top ten things to carry in your car
- 2.30 Getting the most out of your paramedics- requesting an ambulance, working together.
- 3.20 Tea and Coffee
- 3.30 Roadside, Pitchside, Bedside- what happens next?
A pot pourri of clinical scenarios will be covered and your role made clearer
- 4.30 Close

Education day organised by Plymouth Locality Immediate Medical Support
Registered charity number 1008872 www.plimsdocs.org.uk

Medical volunteers providing support to the ambulance service where there may be serious trauma or time critical medical emergencies.

Plims